

Dear Art Collectors:

Holocreations presents Hyper'Classical Holo'Dimensional Art. We were recently featured at the Kinetica Art Fair in London this past February where we presented art on canvas, projections on the walls, movie with original soundtrack as well as showcased our fabric and clothing. www.qubismart.com/kinetica-art-fair-london-2011

Adam Lilien is the creator of the Hyper'Classical Holo'Dimensional Art movement. Adam has been discovering and refining this art for the past fifteen years. He spent over a decade in Hawaii as a Shaman and student of spiritual disciplines where he did extensive journeywork and study into Art and the Nature of Space. This new art movement comes from experimentation and a deep understanding of science, mathematics, spirituality, space, free energy technology, complexity and coherence and sacred geometry. www.qubismart.com

3-D Holo'dimensional Art You can view our art with the red and blue 3-D glasses and experience deeper dimensions and movement as more images arise! We do not use 3-D technology as such, however, through the alchemical process of breaking down the colors many times and then recombining them, we produce holo'dimensional colors, which are free of normal color spectrum. These colors are much more vibrant and alive with natural 3-D effects. People LOVE viewing the art with 3-D glasses. This makes for an exciting exhibit or conversation piece. The glasses are not required, and the art is beautiful as is. The 3-D glasses encourage people to interact more and experience the art in a fun and experiential way.

London Collection We currently have a collection of thirty-two pieces of Hyper'Classical Holo'Dimensional Art on canvas that was on reserve for the Kinetica Art Fair. The collection is now available for purchase, and we are happy to present this collection to you as an entire collection or individual pieces.

About the Collection "Kinetic Consciousnesses" This collection was debuted at the Kinetica Art Fair 2011 in London. The theme of the collection, Moving Consciousness Forward, collectively unites visions of the planet going from chaos, through all realms emerging into brilliance and divine play. Hyperdimensional holographic colors create a new spectrum of light that dance across the canvas. These illuminating visions, holo-colors and 3-D effects, are all natural by-products of the alchemical and mathematical processes that each piece journeys through in rendering original spaces.

To learn the details about each piece such as the name and size, please view the document attached named "Kinetic Consciousness Details". We invite you to view the London Collection in the Online Gallery on our website. Go to: www.qubismart.com/london-gallery

We have also included an excel spreadsheet in this proposal which contains art details and prices. Please view the excel file names "Kinetic Consciousness Spreadsheet." We are offering a discount on the entire collection. We welcome collectors and contemporary art lovers to take advantage of this once in a lifetime offer. It is a wonderful investment, as this upcoming art form is emerging and will be the new trend in contemporary art.

Lilien pushes contemporary art to the next level and into Hyper'Classical Holo'Dimensional Contemporary Art. Lilien has started giving talks and workshops on his manifesto, how the art is created and the nature of space. He would be happy to discuss the basis of this art with you. There is an article attached to this document called "Why Art is Needed" which we invite you to read as well.

Thank you for your time and interest. If you have questions, feel free to contact Star Lilien via below contact details. Serious buyers welcome.

Why Art is Needed!

In this economic climate too many people are living to survive, trying to keep their head above water when it comes to their finances, homes and jobs. So the story goes, it is our cities, communities and schools art programs that are the first to have their budgets cut. It is unfortunate that something that brings joy and reminds us of beauty is the first thing siphoned out of the communities.

Our communities, cities and schools need more art. They need places where people can share what is true, good and beautiful through art, movement, music, dance, and other creative expressions. Through creative expression, what is true, good and beautiful arises. Bringing the community together through the arts, we can be reminded of the joy and beauty in this world, which permeates into our lives bringing hope for a better future.

The Emergence of Hyper Classical Art....

New forms of Art, revealing what is true, good and beautiful through science, mathematics and sacred geometry, are emerging along with the development of technology and software. These contemporary art forms are rendering spaces not seen.

Just as the impressionists and cubism rendered new ways of looking at space, so to are these new art forms. As our modern mind has developed and evolved, so has our technology and the way we look at the world so naturally new art forms are being discovered and explored.

In our history, many times artists rendered new concepts in their paintings and then math and science followed. It is the artist who presents the new science and math to the culture by presenting new visions of space. After all, all art is concerned with space and the feelings and understanding revealed through rendering or showing of space.

Look at cubism, it wasn't until the artists rendered this new way of looking at space and presented it to the culture, that mathematicians and scientists followed. Today, there is another revolution happening in art, which will change and shape the way our modern minds view the world, the way we relate to each other and the natural space.

Artists exploring new art forms, beyond contemporary art, towards Hyper Classical Art, are rendering original space not seen. These images can give insight into what is beyond the three dimensions most of us assume all this is. Through different processes replicating the way life emerges and energy expresses on a fundamental level, sacred geometry and the use of high tech software, Hyper Classical Art experiments with spaces of many dimensions. These renderings of hyper'dimensional space produce images of higher consciousness and worlds and life beyond this world.

Hyper Classical Art provides a Vision for a new direction in art where space is the medium and is used as a tool for scientific, philosophical, spiritual and creative realization and evolution.

Adam Lilien has pushed contemporary art towards Hyper Classical, rendering hyper'dimensional space and holographic colors, which have natural 3-D affects. This is an amazingly beautiful new art form that should be shared and explored being a new visionary art form with deep philosophical roots, which will help people's understanding of how life emerges and life beyond the physical material space.

Kinetic Consciousness
The London Collection
Debut at Kinetica Art Fair 2011

The Union of Sacred Geometry, 2003

This is where Sacred Geometry and Holo'Qubism vector through sacred space, creating deep beauty with higher order spiraling into super consciousness. Holo'Qubism discovers and reveals what is prior according to Lilien's research and experimentation. Holo'Dimensional Qubism embodies the surface as a frameless field and a projector of Space with dimensional properties. Stand back five feet and breathe deeply as you gaze into the painting, and you can notice the many dimensions. Allow the space to permeate your being as your mind is transported to a higher dimension. Art Number 1029, Size: 33" x 38"

Crystal Rainbow Gods, 2003

Cosmic Rain Gods drench us with their divine wisdom. Open your heart and mind to this higher consciousness and allow their divine flow to drench your deepest parts, purifying you, clearing your chakras and allowing you to feel the divine nature of this Cosmos. Art Number 1025, Size: 21"T x 37"W – On Display at the Lazy Gecko, Glastonbury

Chaos to Order / Earthly Beings Ascend, 2004

Qubistic Art frames evolve through a continuumization of itself, illuminating consciousness through deep scientific experience with Holo'Qubism and holo'fractal experiments. Such Art is itself. It is not a symbol or rendering of something else. It is a rendering of a completely unique hyper'dimensional space projected in hundreds of dimensions. Holo'Fractal Qubism shows how evolutionary order can emerge out of any kind of chaos. As a spiritual journey takes one from chaos to stillness of the mind, body and energies, so may this divine art form. By meditating on this hyper'dimensional art form, the viewer no longer becomes the viewer but gets absorbed into the art as it permeates the space. The viewer becomes the art! Art Number 1018, Size: 38" x 38"

Infinity Illumination, 2004

Holo'Dimensional Artist, Adam Lilien, uses tools of art to explore deep into science and philosophy to gain insight into the nature of existence and space and to explore the nature of life and the nature of Creation. This Shaman, Healer and Alchemist is a conduit of new order, drawing the viewer beyond their ordinary awareness, revealing another realm, and initiating them into a deeper space of meaning. This is a movement of human evolution! Divine Light bursts through the vectors of time and space, illuminating higher consciousness to all beings. Let this divine light permeate your being. Art Number 1024, Size: 38" x 38"

Rainbow Temple of Life, 2007

Blueprint of life beyond, this is our future, our now, and our before. Let the blueprint of this divine city show you the path of your journey. Open Systems are the only reality. Art Number 1030, Size: 31" x 55"

Coherent Love Dance, 2005

Coherent Space has the quality of pattern duration. It is experienced as a kind of journey or story and can alter our Subjective Space. Hence, the power of the syntropic impulses, the power of the story and the draw of the journey alters destiny. Holo'Qubism creates evolutionary incarnations of creations. They allow explorations to harmonic syntropic life. (syn: coming together and tropic: in union, from universal to the specific) Art Number 1007, Size: 38" x 38"

Neon Tapestry of Light, 2008

All people do not see the world as you see it and as contemporary society sees the world. Do you think that ancients saw the world as we do? The impressionists brought a whole new way of viewing space that could not be seen until they rendered it. What do you see in this Tapestry of Light? Come close and tell me, what do you see in this Neon Tapestry of Consciousness? Now, take five steps backwards and tell me what you see. Art Number 1003, Size: 38" x 38"

Divine Love Candy, 2008

Let this candy melt in your mind and in your soul. Sweet happy bliss will bathe your aura and lift your vibration to Love. As you gaze, breathe deeply and inhale the sweet nectar of the cosmos, allowing every part of your being to permeate with LOVE. Art Number 1020, Size: 26" x 38"

Cosmic Water Colors, 2009

Holo'dimensionality provides a means to explore the nature of primordial existence. Holo'dimensional space organizes the random energies of the visible light spectrum to transmit negentropic* energy effects via color, textures, shapes, and relationships. Visible light is but a small portion of the Open System of Creation. *Negentropic: self organizing, represents an increase in order in information. Art Number 1006, Size: 38" x 38"

An Ecology of Wisdom, 2008

An Ecology of Wisdom flows through the cosmos. All who are receptive can open up to the profundity of space. Holo'Qubistic Art converges linear and non-linear fields of space and frame as projections of hyper'dimensional perception. This image is a projection of a small sliver of hyper'dimensional space that has been brought down to Earth for us to see. It contains great amounts of knowledge and wisdom with deep esoteric roots. Come close and gaze at the details for some time then take a few steps back and breathe in the wisdom. Art Number 1002, Size: 38" x 38"

Holo Dimensional Cell Life, 2005

Unifying all four dimensions of space that penetrate deeply into our soul and become fundamental to our Subjective Life. Allow this deeply intricate projection to enter your consciousness and begin to map out your path to the divine cellular wisdom of Life. Art Number 1013, Size: 30" x 41"

Crown Chakra Light, 2004

From the microcosm to the macrocosm of life, from the root chakra to the crown chakra, infinite light magnifies through the principles of space. This magnification radiates divine order, which needs to be experienced with all the senses. Imbibe the vibrations, wisdom and therapeutic effects of this holo'dimensional projection of real time and space, allowing every cell of your being to be absorbed, transmuted and re-organized to the highest dimension of this cosmos. Art Number 1004, Size: 38" x 38"

Cosmic Union of the Sacred, 2008

Sacred Geometry unites with the deepest cosmic realms, putting forth science and mathematical tools for exploring truth. Truth is Divine Beauty united with Sacred Wisdom. All sentient beings may open up to this Divine Beauty and Sacred Wisdom, bringing forth collective intelligence as we merge, unite and become one. Art Number 1026, Size: 36" x 36"

Angels of the God-Head, 2010

Layers of Holo'Dimensional Qubistic Art reveal higher consciousness within the patterns. Explore the dimensions and layers and allow time for higher consciousness forms to appear, uplifting the vibration of space and resonating Healing qualities. Art Number 1027, Size: 17.5" x 33"

Essence of the Flower Goddess, 2007

The Nature of space we inhabit determines the qualities of our feelings. Holo'Dimensional subjective space fragrances the room with divine goddess love and light, rendering life-forming original space. Stand in this new original space and tune-in to your feelings as you breathe in the essence of the Divine. Merge with the Goddess and allow her to drench you in love and light. Art Number 1028, Size: 37" x 37"

Primordial Stream of Emergence, 2008

Where does this stream begin and end? The stream of life is Space itself. Emergence of life has been happening for eons and will continue infinitely, uprising as many different forms. However, the original substance will always be the same. Art Number 1032, Size: 32" x 32"

Alien Hierarchy Divine Plan, 2010

Coherent space emerges into higher dimensions through color, light and pattern. The Divine Plan represents the grid work of our consciousness and the framework of our Universe. It is the Matrix in which everything is contained in our three-dimensional being. For every female pole, there is a male pole combining to create Light at every junction. Art Number 1031, Size: 24" x 34" – On display at The Lazy Gecko, Glastonbury, Somerset, England

Cathedral of the Cosmos, 2008

Enter this Cosmic Cathedral to feel deep connectedness with the Universal roots of our Universe. Inhale cosmic light and energy, exhale divine wisdom and love while you are transported to the temple of your soul. Art Number 1008, Size: 38" x 38"

Scalar Potentiality Emerges, 2002

Lilien uses Hyper'Classical Art to express a range of styles arising out of experimentation. Each series emerges as its own unique creation. The art is evolved not designed and therefore not subjective. The art is channeled through the artist. This piece is from a series that represents a higher dimensional level with a chaotic order or non-linear order which is self-referencing. By making a small change, one can create an arbitrarily effect to the whole. Art Number 1023, Size: 37" x 37"

Spirals of Life, 2000

Holo'Dimensional Qubism discovers and reveals what is prior. It embodies the surface as a frameless field and projector of Space with dimensional properties. Space is the medium. Art Number 1010, Size 16" x 16"

Deep Dimensions, 2000

You are viewing the surface as a projection of complex dimensional space. By building, breaking and evolving the space dimensionally the complex harmonic resonance is amplified. The flow of information potential is conserved in the complex space but liberated through the surface projection. Art Number 1009, Size: 16" x 16"

Zol Chen Love Blessings, 2005

Holo'Dimensional Art can create colors that are holographic, meaning they are holographically related rather than spectrally related. Colors of the material lens world are related as the spectrum; red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and violet. Generally, the colors seen and used in art are basically spectral colors of the material lens. Through an alchemical process, Lilien takes the colors apart and reconcentrates them and distributes them holographically. Here the colors become related holo'dimensionally as they are combined and recombined through a generating of holo'dimensional space. Art Number 1033, Size: 37" x 37"

Fourth Dimensional Awakening, 2010

This is a 4th dimensional object projected through thirty-two dimensions. Hyper'Classical Art is about awakening. This is a new energy source to source engineered via Coherence. The Art extracts energy from the precipitation of Space. Coherence increases as the 4th root of organized complexity while the visual energy gradient increases between the frame mass and the coherence of the randomized light energies of the environment. Charge is generated as a byproduct of principled coherence. This byproduct may be felt after gazing at this piece for some time. Check in with yourself while viewing the art and notice how you feel. Art Number 1001, Size 38" x 38"

Condensing Light, 2002

Holo'Qubism comes from the convergence of Cubism and Quabbalistics as the study of the Creator's Original Design Science and Holo as in all information dispersed at every point. Holo'Qubistics are explorations into the form of principle itself revealing the original oscillations of creative potency. Holo'Qubistic Art creates new thought and new emotions as they add to the repertoire of experience. They represent a triumph over the raw data of sensation. Visually, an image goes from the Pure Sensation to Representation to Reorganization, Art Number 1014, Size: 45" x 38"

Gems of the Angels, 2001

Art Number 1012, Size: 37" x 37"

Cosmic Peacock, 2004
Art Number 1016, Size: 37" x 37"

Cosmic Dance of Light, 2007
Art Number 1011, Size: 37" x 37"

Cosmic Tribal Incarnation, 2001
Art Number 1015, Size: 36" x 36"

Lifetronic Forces, 2001
Art Number 1019, Size: 22" x 37"

Hyper'Dimensional Blueprint, 2005
Art Number 1017, Size: 38" x 37"

Arabesque Dreams, 2008
Art Number 1021, Size 37" x 37"

Light in Life, 2005
Art Number 1022, Size: 37" x 37"

Holo'dimensional Space can re-organize and re-energize the psyche, weaving the viewer with the Fabric of Being. This post postmodern visionary artist expresses images that embody their vision of the spiritual and sacred realms found through myriad methods for enhancing visionary and imaginative facilities.
